

IN-PERSON CONFERENCE

Empathy in Action:

Supporting Parents, Infants, and School-Aged Children Affected by Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder

This full-day, in-person conference is an essential learning experience for nurses, mental health clinicians, pediatric providers, and families impacted by fetal alcohol spectrum disorders.

Learning Objectives:

- Enhance participants' ability to recognize the foundations and behavioral symptoms of FASD, emphasizing behavioral science and symptomology.
- Teach participants advocacy skills to support children diagnosed with FASD in academic settings.
- Equip clinicians with practical strategies for effectively supporting parents of children with a neonatal diagnosis or FASD.
