GLIMPSES OF FASD

Living Experience Interviews: Short Video Stories

➤ WHAT ARE THEY?

An opportunity for people to hear directly from people living with FASD and better understand and appreciate the living experience of FASD.

➤ WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

Anyone who lives with FASD or prenatal substance exposure is welcome to participate. You don't need to have a formal diagnosis or any prior experience. We want to hear from everyone.

➤ HOW DO I GET STARTED?

Visit our Glimpses of FASD website to book your Zoom meeting with either Andy or Casidee. Step by Step instructions are available as to how the interview/booking process works there as well.

➤ WHY SHOULD I SHARE?

The more stories shared, the more effectively we'll be able to show the public that the FASD community is diverse and full of so many incredible individuals.

MEET THE INTERVIEWERS:

Andy Kachor

FASD United's Communications Director. He manages the weekly round-up, produces and edits videos, and has a background in video production and community media development.

✉ kachor@fasdunited.org

Casidee Gonzales

FASD United's Media Director. She manages and creates content for social media channels and websites, writes relevant blog posts, and has a background in psychology.

➤ WHERE CAN YOU FIND OUR STORIES?

We have used video and storytelling to feature the living experience of FASD for many years now:

- Youtube Channel operated since 2010 including video interviews of individuals living with FASD from across the FASD spectrum, including children, adolescents, and adults from diverse backgrounds.
- Series of written posts spotlighting interviews and profiles of people with FASD.

➤ HOW WILL CONTENT BE USED?

With your permission, your video will:

- Be part of our Media & Communications Hub.
- Made available to the public on our website and social media channels.
- Be available for trainings and events held by us and our partners.
- Utilized for academic and scientific research and data analysis.
- Inform the experiences and perspectives of individuals living with FASD.
